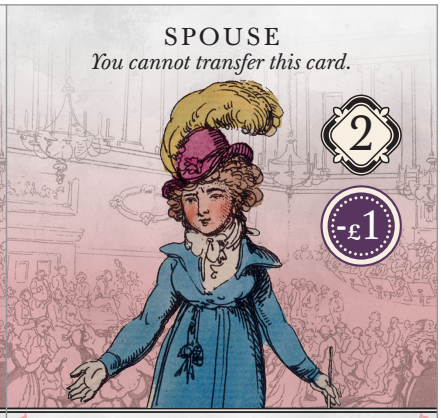
Mr. Rochester

You may no longer enlist writers as your family action. Note: the extra writer from the Tenure Limits law is still permitted.

11



Esther Summerson

You may no longer take or own blackmail cards. Any you currently have facedown must be traded or discarded. Faceup blackmail cards must be discarded.

12

John Thorpe

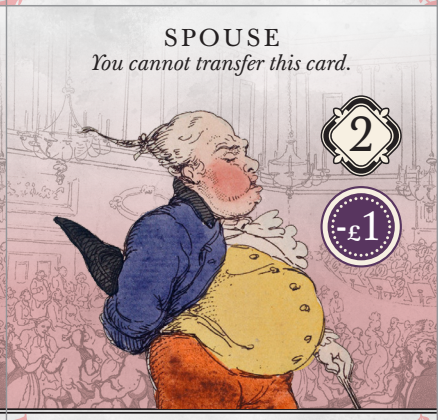
You may no longer purchase or own workshops. Any you currently have must be traded or discarded.

13

Violet Effingham

You may no longer purchase or own shipyards. Any you currently have must be traded or discarded. (Fitted ships associated with discarded shipyards remain in play.)

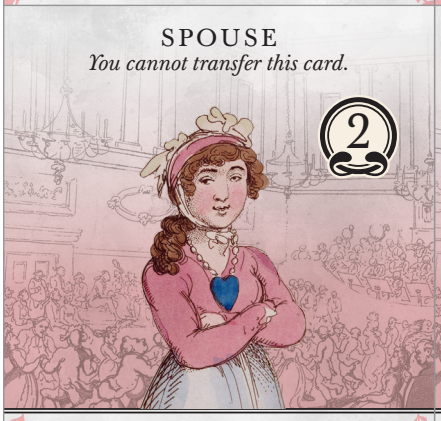
14



Joseph Sedley

You may no longer seek or own Company shares. If you are Chairman, move your family member back into the Court as a share and vacate the office. Any shares you have must be traded or removed.

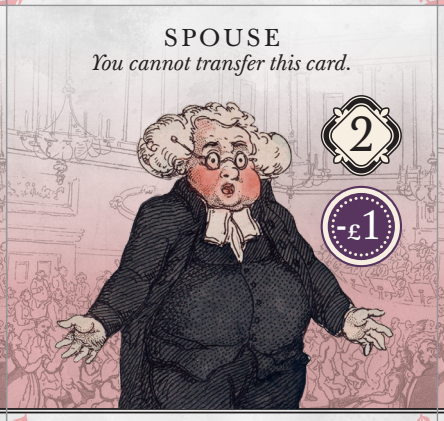
15



Becky Sharp

When taking prestige cards, you may take a card from the top of the deck instead as long as there is at least one card in the display.

16



William Collins

You may no longer enlist officers as your family action. Note: the extra officer from the Army Spending law is still permitted.

17

Lady Glencora

Remove your opportunity marker from the game. It is never placed when you take an action. Note: you may still gain extra actions from laws and an extra writer when there are 4+ vacancies.

Special Session of Parliament

DEREGULATION

At the start of a turn, the Prime Minister may call a session of Parliament to vote on this law if either Standing or Debt is on a lined space. If either piece is on a space with a star, the session must be called. In either case, no policy is proposed.

The initial support of the law depends on the status of Standing and Debt: +2 / +6

The Company loses its trade monopoly. Players may now start a firm. Clear half (rounding down) of Company Debt and place the Standing marker on the "S" space on the track. Flip this card.

If this law fails, set it aside. The Prime Minister will remain in power and the value of Company shares is advanced.

Commander Actions

First, may purchase local alliances with consent of your President (using their funds). Then you may take Deploy actions.

Choose a legal target. Then, make a check.

Next, roll for each officer used and remove on a "6."

If successful, divide loot (see back) and take trophies equal to target region's tower levels. Then remove any closed orders, clear unrest, and form governorship if applicable.

If a catastrophic failure, return half (rounding up) of your trophies and return the Commander to its supply.
